PANEL 3:

Talents pipeline and staffing for a sustainable future. Competences of future leaders.

Many segments in our industry are facing serious staff shortages. Whilst the growth of the aviation & aerospace can only be successful if we feed the talents pipeline and in parallel retain people in our sector. Women are traditionally at risk to leave the aviation sector, as studies have clearly shown. How can organisations and companies support to achieve a diverse, equal and inclusive working culture? How can NGOs like IAWA support women to invest in themselves? How to make aviation and aerospace attractive to get the smartest talents engaged?

Panelists:

- Amita Unni, Executive Director and Country Head Randstad Sourceright
- Lou-Ann Seet, Partner Sales Asia Pacific for FlightAware, President Women in Aviation International, Singapore Chapter
- Mansi Singh, Partner BTG Advaya
